RATES BLOCKING TRADE ACTIVITY

Business Revival Deemed Impossible Under Existing System

DEFINITE MOVE SOON

Sees Desperate Straights of Industry, But Admits Deep Problem—Harding Frames Program.

Washington, April 23.—No revival of industrial and agricultural activity on a large scale in this country is possible, in the opinion of the President and his Cabinet, as long as the present system of railway rates is in effect.

This was the conclusion reached by the Cabinet yesterday after a second survey by that body of the whole business problem in America as it exists today. President Harding himself let it become known yesterday afternoon that he and his advisers regarded freight rates as the key to the whole situation.

At the same time he confessed that a concrete solution was yet to be developed The man has not been found, he added, who could point unerringly to a remedy for the condition which all interests now recognize as fundamental. Freight charges must come down, it was stated, but how to bring them down as long as railroad operation costs remain at their present level is the unanswered question.

There is reason to believe that the Administration is moving more or less decisively toward a railroad policy. No outline of this can be indicated for the time being, but the President does not feel that the Government is powerless in dealing with the problem, by any means, and it need not be surprising if he makes some definite move within the next few weeks.

Meanwhile the eyes of the Administration will be fixed upon the Cummins investigation in the Senate. At the instance of the chairman of the Interstate Commerce Committee of that body an inquiry into the whole question of transportation is about to be undertaken, under authority of the Senate.

The inquiry is to determine first of all whether or not the Cummins Esch act has proven a failure in meeting the transportation needs of the country, as has been charged. Specifically, it is to demonstrate, if possible, whether it is wise, after all, to divide the Government's authority over the railroads, delegating rate matters to the Interstate Commerce Commission and wage matters to the Railroad Labor Board.

As long as the Interstate Commerce Commission has the last word on freight rates and as long as the Railroad Labor Board is the final judge of wages, the Administration is handicapped in its efforts to deal with the questions presented. All this will be shown once the Senate inquiry begins, and if the Senate makes no move of its own toward relief the President may feel impelled to step into the situation

From its investigations the Administration is now thoroughly convinced that the present high freight rates are choking some lines of business to death and is oppressing practically all lines. For example, the President has been told of one shipment of citrus fruit from California to New York that cost more to haul than it brought on the market, the producer being compelled to pay the difference.

He has been shown, moreover, that coal is not moving to market except to supply the most urgent needs, the consumers refusing to buy as long as the transportation costs are excessive. This he believes with the lake traffic just opening, may prove disastrous by producing another shortage next winter.

Then, too, the President has found that agriculture generally is in desperate straits as a result of freight charges, which are virtually prohibitive on many shipments. He does not believe that either agriculture or industry can be restored to a prosperous basis as long as this condition prevails.

Harding To Officiate

Will Turn First Spade of Earth For Memorial—Dr. E. B. Jackson In Charge

When President Harding turns the soil for the great religious Liberty Memorial Church this afternoon, in Washington, it will celebrate an important era in the history of America. It will be an occasion of great interest to the Baptists of the United States, who take this means of expressing their undying appreciation of the benefits of religious liberty. A statue of Roger Williams, martyr apostle of liberty, will be placed in front of the great structure. Williams was one of the great pioneers of the Baptist faith, as well. Jeremiah Moore founder of the First Baptist Church of Alexandria, lay in the old Colonial jail here before the resolution because he refused to conform to ecclesiastical authorities. President Harding has a brother who is today a Baptist Missionary in India. Probably a large crowd will be present from Washington and vicinity. There will be present also representatives both from the Northern and Southern Baptist conventions. The foundation will be begun alongside the Immanuel Baptist Church, corner of 16th St., and Columbia Road. The exercises will extend from 3.30 to 4.30.

The prayer will be made by the Rev. J. J. Muir, D. D., chaplain of the U. S. Senate, and the program incident to the occasion will be in charge of Rev. Dr. E. B. Jackson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Alexandria, who is chairman of the Building Committee of the memorial.

IN MEMORIAM

KRAFT—In loving remembrance of our dear beloved son, FRANK N. KFAFT, who departed this life two years ago today, April 23, 1919.

He sleeps but was so young so fair,
He slumbers and knows no care,
His heart was pure, his life so young,
Yet God's will, not ours, be done.
The bloom of youth was in his cheeks
And bright the glow in his eyes,
None knew that he so soon would change,
Or would so quickly die.
Surrounded by friends we feel lonely,
Amid pleasures we feel blue,
A smile on our face
And our hearts aching and longing for you.
Frankie, although thy hands we can not feel,
Thy face we cannot see,
Still let this little token tell
We still remember thee.

Four Act Drama

Kathleen Mavourneen To Be Produced at Lyceum Thursday And Friday

Kathleen Mavourneen, to be produced by St. Mary's Junior Players at the Lyceum Hall next Thursday and Friday evenings, is a drama consisting of four acts and quite a few changes of scenery.

The newly installed electrical lighting system has been judged to be second to none in the State, and in all, everything points to a very successful rendition of a drama that has been famous for over fifty years.

Thursday and Friday evenings of next week are the dates set for the performance, and a rehearsal of the players will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Lyceum. The players have been rehearsing but for a short time, on account of the new installation of lights at the Lyceum, but in their short time have shown a remarkable amateur ability that promises to afford a very interesting evening for all those attending.

Hurls Self to Death Before Speeding Auto

Staunton, Va., April 23.—Hurling himself on his hands and knees in front of a speeding automobile yesterday morning about 6 o'clock, C. Lee Brown, received injuries, from which he died fifteen minutes later. City Coroner Parkins returned a verdict of suicide.

Brown had been admitted to the Western State Hospital about a month ago. His case being charted melancholia. He had made progress toward a normal state and hospital authorities would have granted him a furlough within a short time.

The chauffeur saw Brown standing by the roadside bordering the hospital grounds, but not until he got within a few feet of Brown did the man jump in front of the car, which passed over his body. Brown's body will be taken to his home in Accomac County, where he was born. He was 40 years old.

Caruso, Recovering His Health, Leaves Hotel

New York, April 23.—Caruso walked out through the lobby of the Vanderbilt Hotel yesterday, charting a course between the plush chairs in which twenty men held drowsy night watches not so long ago, waiting to flash the word that he was dead.

He waved to the bell-boys who hustled big steel tanks up to his apartments on the seventeenth floor only a few weeks ago, from which the doctors forced oxygen into his lungs when every feeble heart-beat counted.

Great Seal of The Confederacy Is Found In Europe, Henry Watterson Says

Louisville, April 23.—Henry Watterson today revealed a bit of history in connection with stories of the disappearance of the Great Seal of the Confederacy, about which much has been written recently, and gave it as his belief that the original seal is somewhere in Europe, probably in England.

Mr. Watterson has one of the six original copies of the great seal. "It was obtained in this way," he said today at his home at Mansfield, near Louisville:

"When Judah P. Benjamin left this country forever, to locate in London, he intrusted the great seal to his secretary a man named Bromwell. A year or two after the war Bromwell became my father's law clerk in Washington city. My father had the copies made and Bromwell retained the seal. Some time later Bromwell went to London to join Mr. Benjamin, who took care of him until he died, some time in the seventies.

"He took the seal to England with him. I have no doubt it was in his effects and that is now reposes somewhere over on the other side."

Richmond, Va., April 23.—Authorities here on Confederate history said last night that all doubt has been cleared as to the genuineness of the great seal of the Confederacy, now to be seen in the Confederate Museum in Richmond.

The seal in Richmond was taken to England several years ago and shown to the nephew and successor of the engraver who made the seal. This engraver, Allen J. Wyon furnished J. St. George Bryan, who took it to England, with a certificate attesting it to be the one his uncle made—the only original great seal of the Confederacy.

It was presented to the Confederate Museum in 1912.

BOMB SUSPECTS' BAIL FIXED

Scranton, Pa., April 23.—Bail of $10,000 was fixed yesterday for Tito Ligi, who is confined here on suspected complicity in the Wall street bomb explosion of last September. He was committed into the custody of a United States marshal after a hearing on the charge of wilfully violating the Selective Service act during the war.

His commitment by Federal Commissioner Ellis extends to May 2, when he will be required to appear before a Federal judge at Harrisburg, Pa. Meanwhile a grand jury investigation is expected. Ligi is locked up in the county all here.

HOME ON WHEELS ATTACHED FOR DEBT

Bloomsburg, Pa., April 23.—Instead of moving the wheels, Justice of the Peace Rutter here, attached the movable dwelling of Edward Travelpiece after Creasy and Wells had expressed their worriment to him that Travelpiece would travel a longer piece than they would like to see as long as they claimed an equity of $152 in said mobile home.

In other words, Creasy and Wells filed an assumptist claim against the house of said Edward Travelpiece for the aforesaid sum of $152. As the house is eight by seven feet and mounted on wheels, and comes under the law as personal property Justice Rutter had two choices. He could attach the house or detach the wheels. He did the former.

OVER HILLS TO POOR HOUSE, JERSEY EDICT

Clarksboro, N. J., April 23.—It's to be "over the hills to the poor house" for partly destitute families or individuals in Gloucester county who for several years have been subsisting upon weekly pittance provided by the Board of Freeholders. The board has just discovered that it has been paying out money for poor relief illegally and that it can only provide for the county's wards by sending them to the almshouse near Clarksboro.

By a plan adopted under an old law, the Gloucester county board distributed many hundreds of dollars at a rate of $ 2a week for the relief of partly destitute persons, who with this aid found it possible to keep their homes instead of having to go to the poorhouse.

The board found this arrangement economical. It costs more than twice that amount to maintain inmates at the county almshouse. An inspector for the State charities department recently informed the free holders they were using county funds illegally.

Rescue 2 From Launch After 6 Hours' Battle

New Orleans, La., April 23.—Through the watchfulness of Mrs. M. R. Norvell, lighthouse-keeper in Lake Ponchatrain, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Cavenaugh, of this city, were rescued from the launch Lella Pazazza late yesterday after battling for six hours with contrary winds and tides.

When the launch first became distressed by the winds and waves shortly before noon yesterday, Mr. Cavenaugh attempted to reach land in a leaky skiff, leaving his wife alone on the launch; but, owing to the difficulties encountered, he could neither make land nor return to the launch. Their plight was observed by the light rouse-keeper, and a rescue was effected by Louis Morgan, who towed the Lolla Pazazza to a bayou near Milenourg with his launch.

Grapes of Wrath. Much sooner than expected the poisonous darts which Colonel George Harvey hurled at the head of Woodrow Wilson for nearly eight years are returning whence they came.

In the militant and vicious attacks made upon Colonel Harvey as ambassador to Great Britain by Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi in the United States Senate Thursday, the great pretender to president-making got a dose of his own medicine and go it in a style that conforms to the peculiary nasty Harvey style at its best. Having searched the darkest caverns of the English language for words, phrases and epithets with which to misrepresent, slander and damn Wilson, the erst while editor of the most scurrilous sheet ever published in this country may expect to have the weapons which he forged turned on himself from now on with unabating energy by Mr Wilson's friends.

George Harvey should never have been made ambassador to Great Britain and nothing indicates more completely the folly of his appointment than this storm that broke about him this week in the Senate. Many people, both those who like and those who dislike Harvey, will agree that our representative at the Court of St. James should be a man who has the confidence, the respect and the good will of all Americans generally that he should not be a man who has incurred the intense ill-will of millions of Americans as well as Englishmen. Ambassador Harvey will never represent all of America in London or anywhere else. His confirmation was opposed by a considerable and respectable minority in the United States Senate. The attack of Senator Harrison upon him, even after he is in fact the country's ambassador, is but the beginning of a series that will make his position anything but a pleasant one and in a large measure destroy any usefulness he might have for us abroad. In dealing with Colonel Harvey as American Ambassador, the British will be quick to see that they are dealing not with the American people but with a faction of the American people, and will shape their diplomacy accordingly.

All of which will be much to our disadvantage.

Not Neutral. The clever and audacious attempt of the German government to drive a wedge between the United States and the nations with which we were lately associated in the World War, by asking President Harding to pose as umpire in the matter of reparations, has met a prompt, decisive and well deserved frustration. The note from Mr. Hughes to Berlin refusing to accept the role of mediator between the Allied powers and Germany leaves nothing to be desired. It may take this note and several more, but sooner or later the Germans will learn that the United States of America is not a neutral in anything that concerns the late World War or its aftermath. It is on the side of the Allied nations and there it intends to remain.

We have Senator Lodge and the treaty wreckers to blame for putting us in a position to be thus insulted by the German government. Their nefarious undertakings which have so far prevented us from making peace along with our associates in the war have given Germany the ground for hope, if not belief, that we have reverted from a state of war to one of neutrality. Such hope is doomed to disappointment. America is still pro-Ally and refuses to be considered as a neutral in anything that affects Germany and the Allies.

That eclipse of the moon certainly happened at an inopportune hour for straggiers home from the party who generally need all the light they can get.

Some blind soldiers the other day presented General Pershing with a hammock they made themselves. Evidently thought the General needed a soft berth somewhere.

T. P. A. Address

Delivered By Col. J. Y. Williams Before National Board of Directors

The April number of the National T. P. A., magazine contains the following address delivered by Col. Julian Y. Williams at the March meeting of the board of directors of the Travelers' Protective Association.

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Board: I don't know of anything particular I have to say, except to say I am very glad to met with you here and I am glad to meet so many old friends. I am very glad to see you transact business and in that connection I find just reason to compliment you on the manner in which you are managing the business of the Association. The record that has been made in point of membership, as well as the financial showing, is such as to win the commendation of the entire membership.

Recently I have been thinking quite a bit about the Association. The thought expressed here this morning—about whether we were running a fraternal organization or whether we were running an insurance organization—impressed me more than ever with the thought that now with a membership of practically 100,000 with our assets constantly growing, with the war out of the way, with the reconstruction period on, that some of us must get very busy. I say, "some of us" for this reason—that it would astound you if I were to send to you the large correspondence that I am called upon to handle from individual members scattered throughout the country. Now what we want to do and what we must do is something constructive, and I will say to you gentlemen frankly, that it is beyond any one man to follow in detail this idea. I bring the idea to you, hoping you gentlemen will enlarge upon it. There is a great deal to be done. Recently I was in another organization work and we adopted this plan; we called in a number of men and asked them individually what the organization could do to be of benefit in the particular business, and it was really surprising to see how eloquent they would grow. The very thought of what could this organization do to promote their personal business struck them and they enlarged upon the idea immediately. "What could this organization do to benefit the community in which we live and the state?" Gentlemen, it was simply astounding to hear the suggestions on certain things that could be done for the benefit of the community and state. Now what is necessary to bring about a general improvement to benefit the growing traveling public represented by this Association? I submit that thought to you, gentlemen. We have now had a change in administration, the first in the past eight years, and everything is in a state of chaos today; things all around are wrong; they have got to be brought around right. We can aid the men who have gone to Washington by telling them what the people want.

Now I have come to you today, not so much to serve as chairman of the committee on which I was appointed, but I come to you to ask you as members of the National Board of Directors for some suggestions in your national legislation, and I have this thought in mind—that when the suggestions come, I don't propose to rely upon my judgment, but it is my intention to call on men from nearby, meet in conference and go over these things and try to present them in a way that will, to some extent at least, reflect credit upon this Association. In the Travelers Protective Association we have some very great geniuses; I dare say my friend Mr. Ramey has many things that he would like to discuss along the lines that I have indicated to you gentlemen. And so, as I said before, I come to you today for suggestions. It is my purpose to again write letters to the Chairmen of the Legislative Committees (State) but there is very little success that I hope far along that line; it is very difficult to get them to reply, but something constructive must be done by the T. P. A. If we are going to continue as an aggressive commercial body, we have got to pay a great deal of attention to the personnel of the Association: we have got to build it up. You gentlemen appreciate that when you have a membership of one hundred thousand men, and you address an administrative body and say you represent one hundred thousand men, immediately they arrive at but one of two conclusions, and that is, the personnel of the 100,000 or the personnel of the members. I mention that thought in connection with this election of your officers, Post, State and National. The time never was when so much attention should be given to that particular thought in organization work as now. You gentlemen can help the organization work very much, but at present, as I said before, every thing is in a chaotic condition; every thing is simply new at Washington today; the leaders there are extremists, but this is not the day for leadership impelled by extreme thought. There is a great intermediate round that we have got to get on and that intermediate ground is none other than constructiveness. I hope I have made myself plain, gentlemen. I am interested, as each and everyone of you are, in the record made by this Association, a record which we hope will attract new members. The better the record, the better the personnel connected.

A TRIBUTE TO MISS ALICE DE-VAUGHN

(Communicated)

The Willard W. C. T. U., has suffered a great loss in the death of one of its most beloved members, Miss Alice De Vaughn.

For about fifteen years her name has graced the roster of our organization; she was not merely a nominal member, for before her health failed, she was one of the most faithful attendants at our weekly meetings, which to her, were great events.

She was not a silent member either, for no discussion was ever complete without her opinion and advice, which she gave fearlessly and gracefully; her insight was keen, her reasoning good and her devotion to a principal or a duty unquestioned. Miss De Vaugnn was the first president of the Willard W. C. T. U.; for a number of years she was Superintendent of the Press Department and on several occasions, she had the honor of attending the State Convention of the Virginia W. C. T. U., as a delegate from Alexandria.

There was no camouflage or weakness about the character of "Miss Alice," as we loved to call her.

She was straightforward, positive and definite, yet there was blended with this strength of character a refinement and graciousness and modesty, that bespoke the training and culture of the Old South. Her devotion to the teachings and precepts of her saintly father and mother stand out in vivid contrast to the laxity along that line, that is so prevalent in the world today.

The keynote of her character might be summed up in the one word, Devotion.

She was loyalty itself whenever and wherever the hand of Duty beckoned her, in the home, in the sick room, among her friends and last, but not least, to the cause represented by the little white ribbon.

We shall miss you, Miss Alice, for fifteen years you wore the little white ribbon, and when you could no longer pin it above your brave heart, it was placed there by loving hands, that even amidst the Majesty of Death, it might speak of the Cause that meant so much to you.

May your mantle of loyalty, truth and devotion, fall upon us who wear the ribbon white is the prayer of the

DING! DONG! BELL!
DADDY'S IN THE WELL

Greensburg, Pa., April 23.—While moving household goods, John A. Bigler, of the Sarver Apartments, narrowly escaped death from drown ing yesterday. He was carrying a box of books and backing along a boardwalk at the side of the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Flath. Mr. Bigler's son carried the other end of the box.

Suddenly Mr. Bigler dropped from sight and the box rested on the side wall. Tearing it aside the son, Zenia, saw a yawning hole in the pavement and realized at once that his father had fallen down a well when the planking over it gave way. Lowering himself into the hole young Bigler hung to the edge of the opening and called to his father to grab his feet. Mr. Bigler came to the top of the twenty feet of water in the well and managed to clutch his son, who shouted for help and held on until rescued. Neither was injured.

Haywood's Lair Sought by Trail of Fair Friends

Chicago, April 23.—Four hundred letters from women in all parts of the country, addressed to "Big Bill" Haywood, have been seized by the U. S. Department of Justice and are being usedl in an effort to establish the I. W. W. leader's whereabouts, according to George M. Murdock, special attorney for the department.

Haywood has a large line of women friends, the attorney said. They were prolific correspondents.

Detectives engaged in the Haywood pursuit in the hope of sending him back to Leavenworth, believe that he is being befriended by Leon Trotsky, Soviet minister of war, in return for random $10 bills which he tossed Trotsky's way when that radical statesman was a soap box orator in New York and far from affluence.

Thomas J. Howe, special assistant district attorney, recalled Trotsky, then under the name of Bernstein, used to make speeches for Haywood at $10 an oration. The I. W. W. membership has slumped from 400,000 to 7,000, Howe said.

Frankfort, Ky., April 23.—Walter Trusty arrived at the reformatory to serve one year after conviction of having taken window cords from the window of a church in Magoffin county to use as plow lines.

Other prisoners to whom he may be congenial is one convicted of breaking into a church and drinking the communion wine, one who stole brass from a church, one convicted of breaking into a church to shoot crap and another of burning a church.

IN MEMORIAM

KRAFT—In loving remembrance of our dear little nephew and cousin, FRANK N. KRAFT, who departed this life two years ago today, April 23, 1919.

Oh, what would we give just to gaze on his face,
And hold him once more in a loving embrace,
But God thought it best and He whispered, "Come Home,"
He is now with the angels surrounding the throne,
Although he has left us and we see him no more,
We are hoping to meet him on a far better shore.

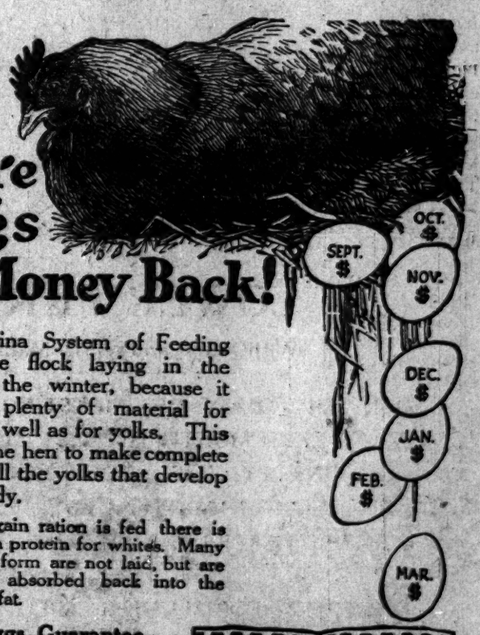
More Eggs or Money Back!



The Purina System of Feeding keeps the flock laying in the fall and the winter, because it supplies plenty of material for whites as well as for yolks. This enables the hen to make complete eggs of all the yolks that develop in her body.

When a grain ration is fed there is not enough protein for whites. Many yolks that form are not laid, but are eventually absorbed back into the system as fat.

More-Eggs Guarantee

Purina Chows, when fed according to directions, are guaranteed to make hens lay more eggs than any other feed, or the money paid for Purina Chows will be refunded.

SPORTS

If you are looking for real summer ball, you shouldn't miss the show on Baggett's field tomorrow when the Dreadnaughts meet the Linworths from Southwest Washington. The spirit of rivalry between these two clubs has been quite high in all lines of sports and both teams are going to do their best to carry off honors. Tetrane's initial appearance in short for the "D's" is expected and his work in this position will undobutedly win for him a permanent berth on the teams line up. Stars will compose visitors line up and both teams' ability will be tested to the limit.

The team that is in best condition will win, so if you want to witness this struggle for supremacy in base ball between two teams where rivalry runs high, come to Baggett's field tomorrow The game starts promptly at 3 p. m.

Tomorrow the Independent A. C., of Washington come down with a great rep, one that should make the Triple A work hard to overcome as these boys are the pride of East Washington, and are going to make us battle to win. According to their manager's letter, they should present one of the fastest teams that has been in town for many months.

Jimmy Quayle and Savage form the battery for the home boys and are sure to give the real exhibition that has made them the most feared battery in these parts since 1910. The team behind these boys is selected from eighteen Alexandria young men and will show you that we still have ball players in the old town, players that fight hard for the home team and never know what quit means. The pep shown by these boys so far have won many friends for them and they are going to show you how a team can fight from start to finish. Nothing but success can come on the ball field if the necessary fighting spirit can show itself at all times. Everybody welcome, no admission, just a collection.

200 Children Play 'Funeral' With Body of Baby in Chester

Chester, Pa., April 23.—The body of an infant dragged along the streets of this city in an express wagon "hearse" by four or five children this morning with an impromptu cortege of at least 200 other children ranging in ages from 3 to 12 years following on behind, all gigling intent on "play in funeral," gave the residents of this town one of the biggest "horrors" of their existence.

The awed procession of youthful mimickers with the little corpse at its head, covered with wet and sodden newspapers, was bent on paying a call at the morgue of E. F. White, a local undertaker, when they were summarily halted by horrified policemen, who took charge of the body and dismissed the troupe.

Laura Smith, 10 years old, originator of the idea of giving the "funeral" was closely questioned and told how she had found the body of the infant when a bundle of newspapers lying on the Delaware River shore at Highland avenue had aroused her curiosity. She investigated the bundle and disclosed the corpse of a baby boy.

"Oh, come and look!" she shouted to several of her playmates nearby. Then, as they stood and looked on in awed wonder: "Let's up play funeral!"

The rest agreed. An express wagon was quickly procured and, tenderly placing the body in it, the little cortege started slowly up the street towards the undertaker's morgue. As they proceeded, many eager cries from the little group attracted other children. These fell in line and themselves attracted still more impromptu mourners until at last a procession at least 200 strong crowded behind the tiny "hearse."

Last night the entire neighborhood was discussing the "doings of its kids," while the police are making a searching investigation to learn who is responsible for the abandonment of the body.

A postmorten will be held to determine the manner of the child's death, whether it died from natural causes or was murdered.

cannot hope ever to become strong and well again unless they have plenty of good, rich, red blood of the kind that organic iron—Nuxated Iron—helps make. Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on iron filings. Nuxated Iron does not injure the teeth nor upset the stomach; it is an entirely different thing from ordinary metallic iron. It quickly helps make rich, red blood, revitalize worn-out, exhausted nerves and give you new strength and energy. Over 4,000,000 people annually are using it. At all druggists. "Suicide By Inches"

Thousands of people commit suicide by inches!

If you took minute daily doses of some poisonous drug, no particular effect might be noticed until accumulation of the poison made its action evident.

Yet how many realize that poisonous substances are formed constantly during digestion and the preparation of the food waste for elimination.

If the bowels act regularly and thoroughly these poisons are eliminated. But if constipation exists, these results stagnation of intestinal waste, germs multiply; and poisons are formed and carried by the blood to every cell of the body.

The victim of self poisoning commits suicide by inches. Pills, castor oil, laxative waters and salts only force and irritate the bowels, and make constipation a habit.

Nujol works on an entirely new principle.

Instead of forcing or irritating the system, it simply softens the food waste. This enables the many tiny muscles in the walls of the intestines, contracting and expanding in their normal way, to squeeze the food waste along so that it passes naturally out of the system.

Nujol thus prevents constipation because it helps Nature maintain easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world.

Nujol is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take. Try it.

Nujol is sold by all druggists in sealed bottles only, bearing Nujol Trade Mark. Write Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), 50 Broadway, New York, for booklet "Thirty Years of Danger".

Ohio Co-Eds Launch Drive for Husbands

Columbus, Ohio, April 23.—Co-eds at Ohio State University have organized a club to acquire husbands before members leave school this spring.

Members of the club admit they are not looking forward to careers. They don't want to teach school or be stenographers, they said.

The organization is known as the "Open Gate" Club. One charter member today explained it thus:

"You've heard the expression 'Giving the man the gate.' Well, the gates of this organization are always open—inwardly. No man is safe."

Rich Haul by Bandits In Home of Capitalist

Los Angeles, April 23.—Two young bandits entered the home of E. E. Pearce, retired millionaire capitalist, late Friday night and escaped with jewelry and valuables worth many thousands of dollars, after binding and gagging Pearce and his Chinese servant.

Several hours later the Chinese succeeded in working loose his bonds, reached a telephone and notified the police.

Pearce was prominent in financial circles in Chicago and New York before his retirement. His home is one of the show places of Hollywood.

President Looms as World Politics Dictator

Paris, April 23.—The Ruhr invasion is off. President Harding looms last night as the dictator of world politics.

This is the immediate result of Washington's reply to Germany which reached the French Foreign office yesterday.

It is declared that the United States, by taking its conciliating attitude, is again perhaps irretrievably enmeshed in the affairs of Europe.

The United States will be obliged to back up its decisions to the limit.

This much is semiofficially asserted last night by Temps, which editorially reflects the most powerful political interests of France, headed by former President Poincare.

ANOTHER ALEXANDRIA CASE

It Proves That There's A Way Out For Many Suffering Alexandria Folks.

Just another report of a case in Alexandria. Another typical case. Kidney ailments relieved in Alexandria with Doan's Kidney Pills.

N. W. Simpson, 1513 King street, Alexandria, says: "It was a good many years ago that I first had kidney trouble and I got so I could hardly get out of bed. The pain and misery I went through were terrible. My back was lame and so sore I could hardly touch it. It hurt me to bend over and I had terrible headaches. Some days I was so nervous I would shake like a leaf. The kidney secretions were in bad shape. Sometimes they were scanty and then I would have swelling of my feet. My feet would get twice their natural size and I couldn't get on my shoes. I was all worn out and didn't have the ambition to work. A friend told me about Doan's Kidney Pills and I got two boxes at Ashton's Drug Store and took them according to directions. They helped me so much I got three more boxes of Doan's and they entirely cured me. Since then I have worked every day and have been in fine health."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Simpson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The track is completed, thanks to everybody. It has already been put to use. The Girls from Lee School held a "Field Day" on it Friday. An excellent crowd of spectators were present. Judging from this crowd, we should be able to make the High School Meets financially successful as well as from an athletic standpoint.

Manassas will meet us on May 3rd instead of April 29th on account of a meeting to be held in Charlottesville on the latter date. On Saturday, May 7th, Mr. Haydon expects to enter a small team in the State High School Meet to be held at the University. Then on the 14th of May comes the meet that the Alexandrians are most anxious of winning, the Eighth Congressional District Meet. In winning this meet we can bring back to A. H. S. "The Cup" that means we are the champions. To win this cup, however, means beating one of the best track teams in the state. This team is Manassas Agricultural High, on which is Lawson, champion point man of last season, Waters, the wonderful man on the mile, besides many others that are hard to beat. Come out and watch us give them "a run for their cup" Leesburg boys are also a very formidable bunch. Don't let any one tell you about these meets Come out and see them yourselves.

The team is going well. Capt. Midkiff is still holding his own in distance work. Suthard is running the dashes in fine time. We are banking on Cockey for the mile. Pohl, Pettitt and Wade are doing some good work with the weights. In all our team is coming up to all epectations.

Friday, the school gathered in assembly and talked over track prospects, and had two reports on the successful basket ball season just closed. Several talkes were made by some of the boys and girls, including Mr. Pohl, Miss Wattles, Mr. Midkiff Mr. Knight and Mr. Myers. We decided that what we needed was a little more school spirit, not only of the students but also of the parents and friends of the school. People, help us make this the most successful season of all

The seniors on the 5th, 6th and 7th of May, will present 'Endeavors of 1921." This will include "Some vaudeville" by seniors and played by seniors, and a four act comedy by Miss Asbury and played by seniors. This play will also be staged by Mr. Dinwiddie, a senior. This will be the first time in the history of A. H. S. that anything has been written, played, staged and directed by entirely High School talent. Seats will soon be on sale. Come out and see what we can do.

ANOTHER THRILLING TARZAN PICTURE

One of the most spectacular pictures ever shown comes to the Idle Hour Theatre next week for two days, Tuesday and Wednesday, April 26th and 27th. The show starts at 2 p. m. Ample accomodations have been made for a large attendance. You will remember the other Tarzan pictures. They are incompara ble. This is no exception. Tarzan leaves his soft life in Europe and America and goes back to the jungle where he expeziences thrilling adventures including fights with his bare hands with ferocious beasts, the ape man, the wreck and explosion of a yacht hunger and need to hunt his own foods with hundreds of fierce beasts prowling about and other sensational happenings which go to make this a real thriller. Don't miss The Revenge of Tarzan at the Idle Hour Theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday next week. You will see the banner across the street from the Gazette Office to the theatre. The picture will show there. Don't miss it.

Manager Cohen has made a ten-strike in getting the first run of this picture in the city "The Revenge of Tarzan" is from the book, "The Return of Tarzan."

1,000 Chinese Die in Panic

Peking, April 23.—Sinking of the steamer Hong Koh, gound from Singapore to Amoy with approximately 1,100 Amoy and Swatow Chinese and 30,000 bags of rice aboard, just outside Swatow, precipitated a panic, in which the passengers fought each other with knives, axes and hatchets for places in the lifeboats, according to consul advices from Swatow. About 1,000 passengers and most of the native crew were drowned or killed in the rioting.

The Hong Koh was drawing twenty two feet of water when she approached Swatow.

When the vessel struck the rocks a panic followed and many were killed with knives, axes and hatchets. The boats and rafts that could be launched were swamped from overcrowding or wrecked against the steamer's side by the heavy swell. The captain, Harry Holmes, was drowned.

What Your Kidneys Should Do For You

The kidneys are really filters, finely organized for their work of cleansing and purifying the blood, selecting and throwing out waste products which would act as poisons if permitted to remain in the system. When your kidneys are out of order, the impurities are not removed and remain to poison the system, causing backache, swollen or stiff joints, rheumatic pains, puffiness under the eyes, floating specks, biliousness, weakness and pale, waxy, dry skin.

WAS MISERABLE AND ALL TIRED OUT

"I suffered with kidney trouble and have taken many bites of medicine without getting relief. I used to have severe pains across my back and felt miserable and all tired out, but after taking Foley Kidney Pills I am well. In fact I have not been bothered with kidney trouble since takir . . pills."—Mrs. C. J. Ellis, 505 8th Ave., . . Falls, S. D.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS

are made from the purest and finest medicines, accepted as the most helpful for kidney trouble and bladder ailments. They cost far more to make than the average kidney pills, for the high standard of their making is never deviated from, no matter how the cost of ingredients advance.
